Offers Over £250,000

Substantial five-bedroom Victorian terrace offering generous proportions, original period features and superb potential for modernisation.

Set over three floors, this impressive five-bedroom Victorian terraced home offers an abundance of space and character, making it an ideal project for buyers looking to create a bespoke family home. The ground floor features two separate reception rooms, both well-proportioned and full of natural light, along with an open-plan kitchen and breakfast area to the rear. Many attractive original features remain, including Victorian fireplaces in most rooms, adding charm and authenticity throughout. While the property would benefit from refurbishment, it provides a fantastic opportunity to update and add value. Externally, there is an L-shaped enclosed rear yard offering private outdoor space with scope for improvement. A family bathroom is located on the first floor, with five bedrooms arranged across the upper levels providing flexible accommodation to suit a range of needs.
