Cwm Hwylfod , Cefn Ddwysarn, LL23 7LN

Offers In The Region Of £649,500

Located on the outskirts of the hamlet of Cefn Ddwysarn, near the market town of Bala and within the breathtaking surroundings of Eryri (Snowdonia) National Park, this beautifully presented detached farmhouse with land and outbuildings seamlessly blends traditional character with modern comforts.

The spacious 17th Century Farmhouse accommodation has been thoughtfully arranged for both everyday living and entertaining, with welcoming reception areas that provide the perfect setting for relaxing with family and friends. Each of the five bedrooms offers a tranquil haven, enjoying delightful views of the surrounding countryside and providing ample space for personalisation. To the outside there is a good range of stone outbuildings ideal for keeping livestock or various hobbies. Surrounded by grounds and paddocks extending in total to around 8.8 acres, this property is ideal for those with agricultural interests and for keeping animals.

Occupying an enviable rural setting, the property is surrounded by the spectacular landscapes of North Wales, where rolling hills, open countryside and unspoilt scenery are quite literally on the doorstep. The nearby town of Bala offers an excellent range of local amenities, while the renowned Bala Lake provides opportunities for sailing, paddleboarding, fishing and a variety of watersports. The area is also a paradise for walkers, cyclists and outdoor enthusiasts, with countless trails, mountains and beauty spots to discover throughout the national park.

Whether you're searching for a substantial family home, a peaceful lifestyle change, or a charming holiday retreat, this exceptional cottage offers a rare opportunity to embrace the very best of rural Welsh living in one of the region's most scenic locations.

Directions
