Fir Tree, DL15 8EA

Robinsons have the pleasure of offering to the sales market this well designed four bedroom detached bungalow. The property sits on a generous size plot with ample off road parking, enclosed mature gardens and a garage.

The bungalow has been well cared for and improved by the current owners, having a sun room extension to the rear, and re-fitted kitchen, the property should prove to be a fantastic purchase for a number of buyers.

The spacious layout creates a versatile home, having four bedrooms and two reception rooms. In further details the accommodation comprises; entrance porch, hallway and cloakroom/WC. Lounge with window to front and two side aspect and electric fire. Four well proportion bedrooms, one currently being used as a dining room, two bedrooms having built in wardrobes. Bathroom with four piece suite, including bath and separate shower cubicle.

Re-fitted kitchen with a range of quality wall, base and drawer units with integrated appliances, including hob and oven, dishwasher and fridge/freezer, breakfast bar. Useful utility room with space for washing machine, wash hand basin and further storage space.

To conclude the internal accommodation there is an sun room extension which enjoys views over the rear garden and would be ideal for many purposes including a dining room or second sitting room.

Located in the sought after semi rural village of Fir Tree which has two pubs, the Duke of York and The Fir Tree Country Hotel and a petrol station; the village, on the A68 trunk road is approximately two miles from the market town of Crook and within 6 miles of the larger Bishop Auckland. Schooling can be found in Howden Le Wear which is the neighbouring village and has a post office/village shop.
