The Omar Newmarket is a stylish and affordable park home, offering modern and well-planned accommodation within the Angel of the North Residential Park.

Internally, the home immediately offers a strong sense of space with a welcoming reception or boot area leading into a large semi open plan living arrangement. The lounge and dining area form an attractive L-shaped layout, while the kitchen opens directly from the dining space creating a sociable and practical environment. There are two bedrooms, with the main bedroom benefitting from an en suite shower room and dressing area, in addition to a family bathroom.

Angel of the North Residential Park, formerly Bewicke Main, occupies a rural setting surrounded by the Bowes Valley Nature Reserve, offering excellent opportunities for walking and outdoor leisure. The park is conveniently positioned between Kibblesworth and Birtley, both providing everyday amenities, shops and leisure facilities, while the A1(M) offers straightforward access across the region. Spread across approximately 17 acres, the development provides a peaceful and well-established setting for residents seeking comfortable living in attractive surroundings.
