Situated in a well-regarded and established location, this attractive home offers a pleasant setting with views over greenery to the front and a layout well suited to modern family living. The position provides a convenient location for everyday amenities and local schooling, making it suitable for a wide range of buyers.

On entering the property you are welcomed into a porch which leads through to a bright and spacious living room. This continues into a generously sized dining room, ideal for family meals and entertaining, with direct access out to the rear garden.
