Durham City is a truly special place to call home, renowned for its stunning historic charm, vibrant atmosphere and excellent lifestyle offering. Famous for its magnificent Cathedral and Castle – a UNESCO World Heritage Site – the city provides a beautiful setting with picturesque riverside walks, cobbled streets and an abundance of character.

The city centre offers an impressive range of amenities including high street and independent shopping, cafés, bars and restaurants, along with leisure facilities, gyms and cultural attractions. Durham is also home to the highly regarded Durham University, helping to create a lively yet welcoming community feel.

For commuters, Durham benefits from excellent transport links, with a mainline train station providing easy access to Newcastle, York and London, as well as convenient road connections via the A1(M). With its blend of history, education, scenery and modern convenience, Durham City remains one of the North East's most desirable locations.
