Horden is a coastal village in County Durham, forming part of the Peterlee area in North East England. Once a thriving mining community, it is now a village with a strong sense of identity and community spirit, benefitting from recent regeneration efforts. Surrounded by green spaces such as Welfare and Memorial Parks, and featuring the historic St Mary's Church, Horden offers a blend of heritage and open space ideal for families and those seeking a quieter lifestyle.

Local amenities include several primary and nursery schools, a medical practice, post office, independent shops, and the popular Horden Heritage Centre & Vintage Tearoom, which serves as both a community hub and a charming spot for refreshments.

Transport links are a significant asset: Horden Railway Station, reopened in 2020, offers hourly train services between Newcastle and Middlesbrough, making it convenient for commuters. The A1086 provides access north to Sunderland and south to Hartlepool, while the B1320 connects directly to Peterlee and other nearby areas. Regular bus services run to Peterlee every 15 minutes, ensuring good connectivity without the need for a car.
