Coxhoe is a well-established and popular village in Durham, situated approximately five miles south of Durham City. It close to both countryside and major urban centres, making it appealing to a wide range of buyers looking for village life with convenience.

The village provides a good selection of local amenities to support day-to-day living, including a Co-operative supermarket, independent shops, a post office, chemist, cafés, takeaways and public houses. There are also healthcare facilities nearby, along with leisure provision such as Active Life @ Coxhoe, which offers gym and sports facilities.

Coxhoe is well served by public transport, with regular bus services connecting the village to Durham City, Bishop Auckland, Hartlepool and surrounding areas. For road users, the village is particularly well placed, with easy access to the A177 and nearby links to the A1(M). This allows straightforward travel north and south, with Durham City, Newcastle, Teesside and other key regional centres all within comfortable commuting distance.
