A true one-off property that must be viewed to be fully appreciated, it has been comprehensively upgraded to a high standard while still retaining warmth and character.

The internal floorplan comprises an entrance porch, large welcoming hallway, fabulous sitting and dining room, spacious kitchen with centre island and feature flame fire, utility room, and a large inviting lounge. To the ground floor there are also two bedrooms, the main benefiting from a fantastic en suite, along with a well-appointed family bathroom. To the first floor are two further sizeable bedrooms, both with their own en suites, creating excellent flexibility for family living or visiting guests.

Externally, the boundary will change as further executive housing is being constructed by the current owners. The property will still retain a large lawned garden. The area currently used as the driveway will become additional garden space, with buyers able to discuss preferred layout or finish with the seller. The existing courtyard area will become the new driveway, which will continue to provide access to the garden. A large garage with electric doors remains a key feature.

Low Pittington is a highly desirable and well-established village offering a semi-rural setting with access to green open spaces and countryside walks, while still benefitting from excellent transport links. Durham City is only a short drive away, along with easy access to the A1(M) and A19, making it ideal for commuters travelling to Durham, Sunderland, Newcastle and surrounding areas.
