The property features an entrance hallway leading to a spacious lounge, an inner hall with a convenient ground floor W/C and storage cupboard, and a modern kitchen/diner with French open to the rear garden. Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms and bathroom/WC. Externally, the front offers a good-sized garden and a long driveway, while the rear boasts a large enclosed garden with patio area.

Thinford, located just outside Spennymoor in County Durham, offers a highly desirable location for buyers seeking a balance between countryside charm and urban convenience. This growing residential area benefits from excellent transport links, with the nearby A167 and A688 providing easy access to Durham City, Bishop Auckland, and the A1(M) for commuting across the North East. Durham railway station is also a short drive away, offering direct services to Newcastle, York, and London. Thinford is close to a range of amenities including supermarkets, local shops, cafes, and leisure facilities, as well as well-regarded schools and healthcare services. Recent developments have brought modern housing and family-friendly communities to the area, while nearby open spaces and walking routes offer a peaceful setting. With its combination of accessibility, amenities, and a welcoming community atmosphere, Thinford is an appealing choice for first-time buyers, families, and professionals alike.
