- Gardens to all sides
- Oil central heating
- Detached garage
- Driveway and additional hard standing
- Vacant possession, no onward chain

Located at the head of a tranquil cul-de-sac in the charming village of Carlton, this attractive detached bungalow offers a delightful retreat for those seeking peace and comfort. Built between 1970 and 1979, the property boasts a classic design with spacious rooms that provide a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The bungalow features two well-proportioned reception rooms, perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet family evenings. With three comfortable bedrooms one with a substantial annexed dressing room, there is ample space for family living or accommodating visitors. The bathroom is conveniently located, ensuring ease of access for all.

Surrounded by gardens, this property is well served for outside space. The outdoor space is complemented by a detached garage and a driveway that provides parking for two vehicles, along with additional standing space to the side, making it practical for families or those with multiple vehicles, caravan, boat or mobile home.

One of the standout features of this bungalow is its enormous potential for modernisation. With a little creativity and vision, you can transform this home into your dream living space, tailored to your personal style and preferences.

The location is particularly appealing, being close to the historic Carlton Towers and its beautiful grounds, offering a glimpse into the rich heritage of the area. This quiet village setting provides a perfect balance of rural charm and accessibility to local amenities.

In summary, this detached bungalow in Waverley Close presents an excellent opportunity for those looking to invest in a property with great potential in a serene environment. Whether you are a first-time buyer, a family, or someone looking to downsize, this home is well worth a visit.
