Description

Located on Jackson Street in the up and coming town of Goole, East Yorkshire. Freshly renovated, this block of three terraced houses presents an excellent opportunity for investors. Each having four bedrooms and a bathroom as well as a shower room on the top floor, this property is designed to accommodate modern living with ease and comfort.

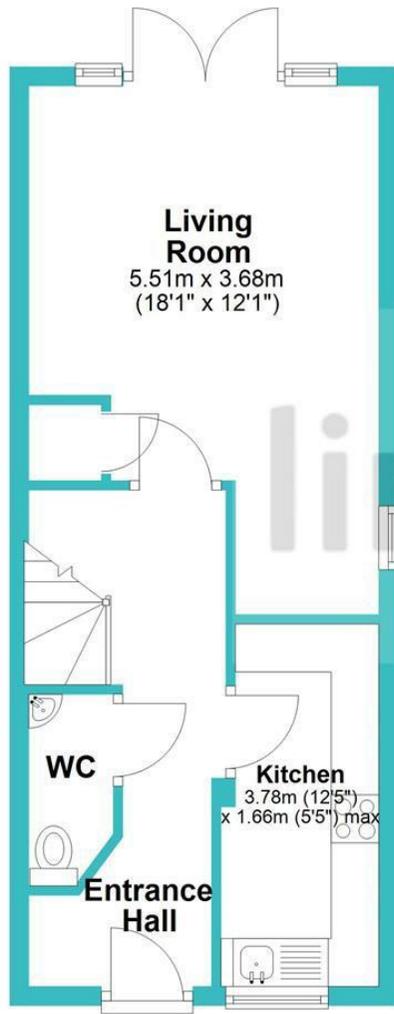

Constructed in 2008 by a reputable local builder, this home boasts a contemporary design that reflects high energy efficiency, adhering to modern standards. This not only contributes to a reduced carbon footprint but also ensures lower utility bills, making it an economical choice for prospective buyers and a very comfortable home for tenants.

The properties features a good size reception room to the rear. With French doors out to the deck and garden. Each property occupies 1,038 square feet of living space.

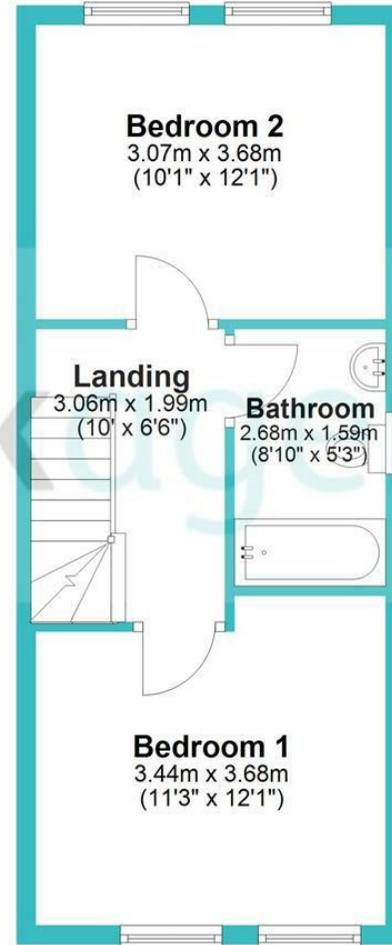

Ideally located just a stone's throw from the town centre, offering easy access to a variety of shops, cafes, and essential amenities. For those who enjoy outdoor activities, the nearby brand new Victoria Pleasure Ground leisure facilities provide a great opportunity for field sports and athletics, as well as spectating.
