LOCATION

Occupying a most enviable and tranquil setting awash with scenic beauty and an abundance of wildlife, this stunning new home is quietly situated within walking distance (450 yards) from the centre of the village of Pensilva and conveniently positioned between the historic market towns of Liskeard and Callington.

The village of Pensilva is well served by a large shop and post office catering for most day to day needs together with a farm shop and cafe. In addition, there is a health centre, primary school (rated "good" by Ofsted), church and leisure/community centre.

Liskeard provides access to a substantial array of amenities including a mainline railway station (London Paddington 3½ hours), supermarkets, banks, hospital, secondary education, gym and swimming facilities, as does the classic West Country market town of Tavistock, which also boasts notable boutiques and delicatessens together with independent schools. The university city of Plymouth is easily accessible via Saltash and the Tamar Bridge, with Saltash having a Waitrose store on its northern outskirts. Plymouth boasts a comprehensive range of premier retail outlets, entertainment and dining establishments set against the stunning and historic waterside areas of the Barbican and Hoe.

In addition, the renowned St Mellion International Golf Resort lies about 9 miles away and the fabulous bathing waters of Looe Bay and Whitsand Bay lie 14 miles to the south. The wide expanse of Bodmin Moor with notable features including The Cheesewring and the Hurlers are within walking distance, with open moorland accessible only 1 mile from the property and providing truly boundless outdoor leisure opportunities with an abundance of observable natural flora and fauna. Nearby Siblyback Reservoir provides various leisure opportunities including walking trails and fishing.
