Along with Seaton, the vibrant local community is well served with a primary school (rated "good" by Ofsted), restaurant, beachside public house, church, beach cafe and doctors' surgery. There is also a Countryside Park with riverside and woodland walks, and a superb farm shop with cafe at Widegates catering for most day-to-day needs. Similar facilities are available at nearby St Germans, where the main line railway station links to Plymouth (with 3 hours to London Paddington). Only a 12-minute drive to the A38, there is easy access to everything you might need in nearby Saltash and the City of Plymouth, the home of the historic waterfront areas of the Barbican and the Hoe, and the renowned Theatre Royal.

Downderry was recently featured in the Sunday Times list of top ten "Best Places to Live by the sea". The Southwest Coast Path is accessed nearby, and the sailing waters of the area are favoured by yachtsmen, with deep water moorings available at various nearby locations. Golf is available at Portwrinkle, Looe, St Mellion International Golf Resort, and many others in the area. The Tamar Valley Area of Outstanding Beauty, the famous surfing beaches of North Cornwall, historic country houses and many other places of interest lie within an easy drive.
