LOCATION

Elm Cottage is privately situated in a sheltered west facing position just outside the village and within the Tamar Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The village of Tideford lies in the rolling countryside on the north side of the historic Port Eliot Estate, about six miles west of Saltash and the Tamar Bridge. The village includes a renowned traditional butchers, Montessori nursery school, public house of excellent repute, restaurant, children's playground and community centre. The A38 provides excellent access to Plymouth and all parts of the region. There is a regular bus service through Tideford to Plymouth and neighbouring towns. The villages of St Germans and Landrake, about three miles away, have primary schools, while St Germans also includes a sailing club on the River Lynher and main line railway station with commuter service to Plymouth and beyond (Plymouth to London Paddington 3 hours).

The town of Saltash has a Waitrose store on its northern outskirts, St Mellion International Golf Resort, the South Cornish coast of Whitsand Bay and the wide expanse of Bodmin Moor are all within a short drive.

DESCRIPTION

Elm Cottage comprises a detached cottage with a west aspect and offering spacious and versatile accommodation, well suited to family living. The property is available on the open market for the first time in 42 years and benefits from hardwood double glazing (not fully double glazed) and oil fired heating served by a superb Heritage Range. There may be the opportunity for multi-generational living or indeed to create an annexe subject to any consents that may be required. Our client will consider selling the property with some furniture, subject to negotiation and excluding personal items.

There are various traditional period features creating a unique home of immense character, the generous garden space has wild/natural spaces with an abundance of observable natural flora and fauna.

The accommodation extends to about 3028 sq ft and briefly comprises - GROUND FLOOR - 2 x Porches - 18' Kitchen/Breakfast Room, a bespoke kitchen by the award winning Treyone Kitchens with Heritage Range - 19' Sitting Room a triple aspect room with exposed beams and Woodwarm wood burner - 19' Music Room - 15' Snug with fireplace - 13' Dining Room with Rayburn open fire - 15' Dual Aspect Garden Room with French doors to garden - Bathroom - FIRST FLOOR - 16' Principal Bedroom with Walk in Wardrobe off - Five Further Double Bedrooms - Shower Room/WC - two staircases create versatility and there is the opportunity to reconfigure some of the first floor space to provide ensuite bathrooms if desired.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached over a lane (in separate ownership but with right of way over in favour of Elm Cottage) leading to ample and level driveway parking. This in turn provides access to the double garage with workshop and laundry room attached. Further outbuildings include three greenhouses and an historic old limekiln building of fascinating architecture.

The established gardens are laid to lawn with a profusion of flower beds, mature trees and shrubs providing colour and interest. There are also many natural areas with an abundance of observable wild flora and fauna. The orchard has apple and pear trees and there is also a very productive kitchen garden, perfect for those seeking to pursue self sufficiency. Within the garden there is also an old stone quarry which again is a haven for wildlife.
