Introduction

In brief the accommodation comprises of; Communal entrance hall shared with the upstairs apartment, entrance door into the living room with a doorway off to a storage area that has a trap door access into the cellar and further door into the large double bedroom. From the living room a second door opens to a step down into the fully fitted kitchen that then leads to a utility area and then onto a rear lobby with outside door to the garden and another door into the WC and on to the shower room.

Property Description

From the road the entrance door to this grade II listed property opens to a communal hallway which is used by only one other property above and has the main entrance door to no 26. Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming reception room that exudes warmth and charm, making it an ideal space for relaxation or entertaining guests that has many original features such as the impressive brick built fireplace, exposed wooden floorboards and wooden ceiling beams. A doorway leads to a useful storage area with feature exposed brick work and which is also home to a hatch door leading into the cellar, and a further doorway into the sizeable bedroom that features a sash window to the aspect. A step down from the living room opens up to the galley kitchen with exposed brick feature wall, wooden worktops, inset gas hob, tiled splashback and extractor fan over and electric oven, cupboards and drawers under. To the other side can be found a wooden worktop with inset ceramic sink, drawers and cupboards under, window to the side. The tiled floor continues through to a utility area that has space and plumbing for a fridge freezer, washing machine and tumble dryer under a wooden worktop and with storage cupboards above. A door leads to the WC with high level WC, pedestal wash hand basin, radiator and double wooden doors that open to the shower room with tiled walls and floor and radiator with towel rail.

Garden

The garden is accessed from the rear lobby with a path leading to a private patio area surrounded by mature trees and shrubs - there is a further lawn area to the rear for use of the upstairs flat (26a). There is no allocated parking for the property however there is street parking directly outside and both private and council car parks nearby which may also offer rental spaces.

Location

The period architecture of the building adds a touch of elegance, showcasing the rich history of the area while providing a comfortable and inviting atmosphere. Living in this flat means you will be surrounded by the picturesque streets of Hereford, with easy access to local amenities, shops, and delightful eateries in the heart of the beautiful City of Hereford with the Cathedral within walking distance.
