Ty-Coed Abbeydore Hereford

This delightful stone fronted terraced cottage offers a perfect blend of character and modern living. Built in 1900, the property was once part of a work house and now forms part of Riverdale, near historic Abbey Dore in the Golden Valley South West of Hereford city. The property has plenty of character features such as wooden latch doors and large wood burner but also offers a modern fitted kitchen and bathroom as well as two bedrooms upstairs. The added benefits of an enclosed rear garden with open countryside views, a garage in a block and allocated parking make this an ideal opportunity for those looking to embrace a tranquil lifestyle in a scenic location, whether you are seeking a permanent residence or a weekend getaway.
