Introduction

A working mill for over 350 years, this unique property now offers flexible accommodation in an interesting and characterful layout which the current owners have improved with modern flair yet always sympathetic to the wealth of original character which makes this home so appealing. There are exposed wooden beams throughout and several rooms have made features out of the old working parts of the mill. The annexe has a separate entrance door to a completely self contained unit where the character continues in abundance. We understand that the holiday let business is very bouyant partly due to the popular Bredenbury Court wedding venue being in close proximity. The stone stables/garages in the courtyard provide potential should anyone wish to expand the holiday let to more units. Outside is a gravelled driveway surrounded by the stone garages/workshops and a wooden double garage to the front, the rear has a beautiful, garden with orchard, pedestrian bridge over the brook, 3 separate wooden stables, and land divided into two paddocks with individual gated access to the road.

Property Description

From the main front porch the door leads to an entrance hall with storage cupboard and leads to a further hall with stairs leading up to a bathroom with freestanding bath and more stairs to the sitting room. The sitting room has exposed wooden beams throughout, triple aspect, the original mill stone and gearing, French doors to the courtyard and wooden open staircase to the first floor. From the entrance hall there are steps up to the kitchen which has windows overlooking the gardens, wooden worktops, Belfast sink, electric range and feature mill equipment including open iron wheels through to the dining room which has windows to 2 sides making the room very light and further feature beams. An inner hallway gives access to the rear garden and also to the main bedrooms and bathroom with three piece suite and shower over the bath, velux window and half tiled walls, bedroom 2 has a velux window and feature exposed beam partition. The main bedroom has dual aspect, velux windows and further exposed beams. The staircase from the sitting room leads to a landing with WC and doors leading off to all further bedrooms. Bedroom 3 is a double room and has exposed stone walls, wooden beams and mill equipment, bedroom 4 has exposed stone wall and wooden beams, bedroom 5/study is currently used as an office but could be a single bedroom, nursery or dressing room and also has exposed stone walls and wooden beams. The annexe has its own entrance door from the gravel courtyard which leads to a lobby/sitting room with fireplace and an impressive stone spiral staircase up to the main living room/bedroom area which has a bespoke built kitchen area and antique carved wooden door to the shower room. The annexe also has a lovely outside patio area overlooking the brook and gardens.

Garden, Parking & Land

The property is approached from the road through impressive electric iron gates and fencing to the front which lead to a gravelled driveway surrounded by the stone garages/workshops, former bakery as well as a wooden double garage. There is also a door to a cellar/storage room under the main accommodation. At the side and rear of the property are the formal gardens consisting of lawn, orchard and gravelled seating area overlooking the brook which also has a bridge over leading towards the paddocks. The first area has 2 blocks of wooden stables and a gated access to the road and then leads via a gateway on to a further paddock all enclosed by hedging that has a further wooden stable and gated access at the far end of the property. We have been advised by the vendor that they have architect drawn plans to convert this stable subject to all appropriate permissions.
