Introduction

A historic five double bedroom Georgian detached house boasting four reception rooms with a large kitchen/dining room that features hand made units and granite work surfaces. The property is situated in a Hamlet on the North Westerly edge of Hereford therefore offering semi rural living but yet still within easy access of the City and all the amenities it offers. The property is accessed through automated sliding gates and the beautifully landscaped gardens of 0.75 acres are enclosed predominantly by stone walling and along with the mature trees and shrubs offer fabulous privacy. Viewing is essential to fully appreciate the quality and size of the property on offer.

Property Description

On entering the property you are in the L shaped hallway that has two sets of stairs rising to the first floor and doors into kitchen/dining room that has a range of hand made units with granite work surfaces and sink inset, built in electric oven, separate combination oven, gas hob, integrated dishwasher and fridge and a two oven gas fired AGA. French doors lead out onto the beautiful terrace. Both the large drawing room and dining room have French doors that open up onto the terrace, off the main hallway is the study that has a window overlooking the driveway, steps down into the large laundry/boot room that has a further range of base units with sink and drainer inset to the work top. The large cellars are accessed from a door in the hallway and house the two boilers and hot water tanks that serve the accommodation and offer great storage space as split into three sections.

From the landing you access all five bedrooms and they all hold a double bed, the main bedroom and one other have en-suites and there is another bathroom and shower room for the remaining three bedrooms to use. From this floor you enter the family room that has French doors overlooking and leading on to the upper garden.

Garden & Parking
