Introduction

A charming and beautifully presented period townhouse with spacious accommodation comprising: entrance porch, entrance hall, sitting room, second reception room, cloakroom, dining room, kitchen/diner, cellar, main bedroom with en-suite and dressing room, three further double bedrooms (two with en-suite) and family bathroom. Enjoying many period features and oozing quality, a private rear garden with extensive lawn, driveway parking and garaging.

Property Description

Entry begins into a bright and airy entrance hallway enhanced by the elegant historical details appropriate to the Edwardian era: generous ceiling height, arch and wood mould detailing and four panel internal and external doorways. To the left is a sophisticated sitting room again boasting historical detailing: ceiling rose, triple pane sash windows (perfect for displaying the most magnificent of Christmas trees), deep skirting boards and intricate coving. There is a wood-burner with black granite hearth and a door to the rear of the home for easy access to stroll the lawned grounds with that evening tippie.

To the right of the entrance hallway is a second reception room currently set up as an additional sitting room but could be used in a number of ways: as a playroom/study or family TV room. It boasts bay sash windows, coving, and alcoves for the possible insertion of in-built storage. Completing the ground floor is a cloakroom, kitchen/diner and separate dining room. The cloakroom is equipped with a WC, hand basin, attractive Victorian style floor tiling and has a window for added light and ventilation. There is room here for the storage of hats, coats and footwear. The kitchen/diner has a range of wall and floor units with a good expanse of worktop. There is a gas range with extractor hood above, integrated dishwasher and fridge/freezer, housing for a washing machine, breakfast bar (seating four) and a door to the rear gardens for al fresco dining opportunities. The room is triple aspect making it a really pleasant space for time spent cooking or catching up with friends and family. Equally advantageous is the separate dining room perfect for more formal dining opportunities and also blessed by the addition of a door to the rear for moments of social over spill into the garden. Also, accessed from the ground floor are stairs leading to a cellar currently used for storage.

On the first floor are three double bedrooms, two with en-suite and a family bathroom all approached from a light and neutrally decorated landing and inner hallway. The master bedroom is of generous size with three paneled sash windows echoing the sitting room below, coving and an adjoining dressing room and luxurious en-suite. The en-suite exudes traditional style with a large corner shower cubicle, WC and elegant hand basin with vanity housing. There is room for dancing here as this en-suite is large enough to be a family bathroom. Bedroom two is traditionally elegant with its bay sash window, high ceilings, coving, alcoves for storage and generous size. Bedroom three is a good sized double with views to the garden, ample room for an assortment of bedroom furniture and the benefit of having its own en-suite facilities. There is a shower cubicle, hand basin, WC, chrome towel rail and window out. The family bathroom boasts a three piece suite of traditional styling. The full size bath has wooden tongue and groove detailing and central mixer tap with shower head. There is a corner shower cubicle, hand basin, WC and window for added light and ventilation.

On the second floor is a fourth bedroom, shower room and landing area amongst the eaves. The bedroom is a good sized double with window and en-suite shower facilities. The area on approach has a velux window and would make a perfect dressing room making a super private guest suite if required.

Garden

The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with borders of mature trees making the garden both private and interesting with their casting of shadows. There is ample opportunity here for adding possible vegetable plots or further landscaping if required.

The front garden is framed by a brick wall with gated entrance, area of lawn, mature hedging and a path leading to the front porch.

Parking & Garaging

There is parking for several vehicles to the rear of the property.

There is an outbuilding within the perimeter of the rear driveway with double doors leading to a garage area and attached store for the storage of garden paraphernalia. The outbuilding has both power and lighting.
