Introduction

You enter through the front door to be met with an amazing interior-designed and renovated home, which offers open plan living in a contemporary style. Parts of this deceptively spacious home have been taken back to bare walls and re-built making this a walk-in home with nothing to do but unpack your belongings. Three bedrooms, two shower rooms and a landscaped garden with wide patio is ideal for those balmy evenings and al fresco entertaining. The bungalow is a very light and airy home with a wealth of well-designed features.

Property Description

Open the front door into a wide and spacious hallway. The integral garage is located on the left hand side with power and light. There is a useful utility room, with stainless steel sink and a generous space for hoovers etc as well as space/plumbing for a washing machine.

The piece de resistance is the cathedral style vaulted ceiling, open plan living room, kitchen and dining area, with high level electric velux windows with rain sensors and bi-fold doors with further French doors opening onto the landscaped garden with generous patio area.

The modern kitchen offers a large central island with deep pan drawers and inset sink with mixer tap. The island has space for two bar stools to sit while the other half cooks. There are generous kitchen drawers and cupboards meaning that the work surfaces are free from clutter offering a minimalistic approach, complete with quartz worktops. There is a high level Hotpoint microwave, AEG oven, warming tray and space for an American style fridge/freezer, together with an integrated AEG dishwasher and pull out bins. There is an induction hob and stainless steel extractor hood. The height of the ceiling gives a wealth of light which bathes the kitchen/dining area.

The dining area currently houses an eight seat table and chairs and the bi-fold doors bring the garden into the room during the warm summer days. The lounge area is large enough to take a corner sofa and a modern wood burner sits quietly in the corner, offering a cosy feeling for the winter months. There is a further set of casement doors leading to the patio and garden.

At the end of the kitchen approached via a hanging sliding barn door is bedroom three with fitted double wardrobe, which is being used as a study/studio at the moment, over-looking the rear garden which offers light. As you come back into the hallway the master bedroom is located at the end of the hallway and has its own dressing area and en-suite shower-room. The bedroom currently houses a super king bed with space to either side for bedside tables. The bedroom is double aspect making it a very light room. The dressing area has a wealth of fitted wardrobes with the centre sections having a full length mirrors, the en-suite is on the right and has been designed with clean lines and large walk-in shower.

The second double bedroom is located down a further hallway on the right of the main hall and has views over the front garden and pretty cul de sac. The second shower room is very dramatic with black marble style shower panelling, very Hollywood! The entire living accommodation offers versatile living and internal viewing is highly recommended.

Garden

The gardens wrap themselves around three sides of the bungalow. The front garden has a large area of lawn and freshly tarmacadam driveway for at least two cars. The well-stocked beds and borders offer colour all year round, the current owner being an avid gardener. There is a side gate to the rear garden and as you enter the gate there is a very large and useful shed. Continue on the path and the garden opens up with raised beds. The large patio has been laid with porcelain tiles, which the sun bounces off. The garden is a sun-trap with sun in the garden until late at night due to being south facing.
