Property Description
A warm welcome meets you as you enter Demesne through its bespoke glass paneled doorway with curved frame. The entrance hallway is generous and impressive with its galleried staircase and ample space for the dispersal of hats and coats. In front of you is access to an equally generous open-plan family kitchen/dining/sitting room that is lit by french doors to both the front and rear of the property. The kitchen is a real striking feature of the home with Mira Stone work tops, island with inset hob top, deep pan drawers, wine rack, ceiling extractor fan, housing for a large fridge/freezer (available by separate negotiation), waist height ovens with microwave above, integrated dishwasher and bins and a great expanse of floor and wall cupboards. Even more exciting are the double doors that lead to a pantry cupboard. The dining section overlooks the back garden and adjoining patio area and frames the wonderful countryside views beyond. The sitting section is demarcated with a wood-burning stove with brick and oak fire surround perfect for those cooler Winter months. Off the kitchen is a useful utility room which has plumbing for a washing machine and a door leading out onto the rear gardens. There is also a WC with fully accessible shower room. To the right of the entrance hall is a study and linked garden room. The study has room for multiple work stations ideal for those needing to work from home. It is well lit due to its southern aspect and could lend itself to becoming a ground-floor bedroom or second sitting room. The Garden Room has a solid roof with velux window, bi-fold doors to the front and hard flooring. A real sun trap with access onto a south facing patio area.

On the first floor is a spacious galleried landing with fitted shelving for the creation of a library space, four bedrooms, one with en-suite and a family bathroom. The master bedroom is a double but currently houses a super-king. It overlooks the surrounding fields and boasts timber detailing, numerous options for the placement of bedroom storage furniture and a large en-suite with walk-in power shower (jet facility), WC, bidet and wash hand basin all in a crisp white finish. Bedroom two is a good sized double with in-built storage, front aspect and views of the Black Mountains. Bedroom three is a double with in-built storage and a rear aspect. Bedroom four is a double with front aspect. The family bathroom is lavish and liberal in size with a large, opulent walk in shower with a curved cubicle, full size bath echoing the curved detail of the shower, WC, basin with storage facility and LED mist free mirror. There is an accessible loft space with power and light.

Demesne benefits from having a one bedroom annexe which is accessed from the study or kitchen and is currently being run as a Holiday Let. The kitchen/breakfast room is a light and airy space with south facing double doors that provide access to the garden. There is a good selection of wall and floor kitchen cupboards, integrated fridge/freezer, breakfast bar with integral four ring electric hob, waist height ovens with microwave above and housing for a dishwasher. There is ample room for a table and chairs alongside the breakfast bar and a utility room with storage and housing for the boiler. The sitting room is equally light and bright with again a southerly aspect, room for multiple sofas and a door leading out into the back garden. On the first floor is a double bedroom with double aspect over the fields and room for a good selection of bedroom furniture for storage. It has an en-suite shower-room lit by a velux window, fully tiled with contemporary and modern style fittings.
