Introduction

1 The Gatehouse dates back to 1455 and being Grade II Listed: indicates its historical significance and architectural interest. It has undergone a complete renovation and now enjoys stylish, practical and well presented accommodation of which the ground floor comprises; entrance hallway, sitting room, WC, utility room and kitchen/dining room. The first floor comprises; two double bedrooms (master with en-suite) and a family shower room. The second floor comprises; two double bedrooms. In addition there is a courtyard garden with walled boundary and rear access.

Property Description

Entry into this prestigious Gatehouse begins through an open alcove and into a welcoming entrance hallway with stairs to the first floor. Immediately noticeable are the sympathetically revived and historical nods to the past such as: stained glass panes in the doorway, high ceilings, wall paneling and column style radiators that give a warm first impression to this newly renovated home.

To the left is an impressive sitting room with a pair of tall sash windows overlooking the desirable Church Street below. Additional delights are the original shutters, exquisite ceiling coving with intricate floral detail and a centrally placed open fire. The vendors have installed a large column radiator and carpet has been newly laid.

To the far end of the entrance hall is a utility room, WC and door to the back courtyard garden. The utility has plumbing for a washing machine, sink, base unit and oak work top. The WC is located under the stairs and has room for the storage of outdoor footwear or other utility goods. The fuse box for the building is also housed here.

The kitchen is entered from the utility room. The high ceiling proportion of this room with large garden aspect window, open fire, oak parquet flooring and newly fitted units make this room ooze character and style. The vendors have very much created a 'newly revived historical home with a hint of contemporary styling'. There is a range of new wall and floor kitchen cabinets with base lighting, integrated fridge/freezer, induction hob with integrated extractor, waist height oven with microwave above and a selection of tall pantry units. There is also a feature wine cupboard with back lighting and room for a large dining table to sit centrally within the space.

On the first floor is a master bedroom with en-suite, bedroom two and a shower room. The master bedroom is of a generous size and handsomely framed by two tall alcove, sash windows. There is an open fireplace, long column radiator, picture rail and paneling detail has been added to the walls. The room benefits from having its own en-suite. The en-suite has been luxuriously styled and wouldn't look out of place in an expensive hotel suite. The room is fully tiled with marble effect stone tiles and has a full size bath with shower over and heated towel rail; all in a glamorous brass finish. There are 'his' and 'hers' hand basins sat on a vanity cupboard with black quartz top and a large mirror over that bounces the light across the room. There is also an obscured window out for added light and ventilation.

Bedroom two has rear aspect. Much thought has been given to the design and layout of bedroom two and in fact each of the four double bedrooms throughout this home; with feature wall paneling, bedside lights and sockets, hidden head height sockets for TVs and some in-built storage. The paint colour choices are sympathetic to the age and character of the property and each room has been newly carpeted.

The shower room on the first floor has a shower cubicle with chrome fittings, WC, hand basin and heated towel rail. It has been tastefully styled.

On the second floor are two additional double bedrooms. Bedroom three sits within the eaves and has rear aspect and an exposed timber A frame. Bedroom four has front aspect and an open fireplace with intricate mirror above.
