Introduction

Situated within the quiet rural hamlet of Ivington Green is this detached home. The property has accommodation comprising; entrance, sitting room, reception room, kitchen/dining room, conservatory, cloakroom, three double bedrooms and a family bathroom. In addition there is a pretty garden, barn, garage/workshop and parking.

Property description

The front door opens into the entrance hall where there is access to the primary rooms and space for coats and shoes. To the right an opening leads to the sitting room which has double aspect windows and a feature fireplace which is inset with a wood-burning stove and creates a cosy focal point to the room. The room opens to the reception room which also has dual aspect windows and the staircase to the first floor landing. The kitchen/dining room has triple aspect windows including a door which opens to the conservatory. The kitchen area is fitted with base units with space for a fridge and a freezer and plumbing for a washing machine. There is an electric oven and hob. The dining area provides ample space for dining furniture and a dresser. The conservatory has triple aspect windows over looking the garden and creates a lovely place to sit and relax with a good book. There are double doors which open onto the garden. The staircase rises to the first floor landing. All three of the bedrooms are double sized with bedroom one and two benefiting from built in wardrobes. The family bathroom is fitted with a WC, basin and shower cubicle.

Garden

A gate at the front of the property opens into the garden where a stone path leads to the front door. To each side there is lawn with established flowers and shrubs including some beautiful ferns lining the borders. There is a beautiful weeping silver birch tree and crabapple tree. To the side the lawn continues as does the pretty shrubs, plants and flowers. There are an additional three apple trees, pear trees and a wildlife area which encourages butterflies and bees and boasts seasonal flowers. There is a raised area suitable for dining and entertaining in the warmer months. A greenhouse creates the opportunity to grow your own produce and there is ample space for vegetable patches. To the rear is the barn and a privy. Across from the property is an additional garden area which is laid to lawn and decorative stone. There is a poly-tunnel and space for parking.

Outbuildings

The barn is separated into two bays and has a mezzanine area for additional storage. There is a privy. The workshop has light and power and could be used as a garage with double fronted doors and a pedestrian door to the side.
