Introduction

The Sallies Farm is a characterful Grade II Listed country property set in a private location with good sized accommodation as follows: entrance hallway, kitchen, dining room, study, sitting room, garden room, ground floor bathroom, three double bedrooms and first floor shower room. The exterior enjoys: outbuilding with workshop, three stables, utility section, double carport and first floor with possible development potential subject to the necessary planning permission. There is also a double garage.

Property Description

Entry begins through a short entrance hall into a kitchen with inner entrance hall directly ahead and a dining room to the left. The historical traits of this home (exposed timber framing and beams) are on show from the outset. The kitchen has a range of white base units with worktop above and planned space for a cooker and sink unit. The room is well lit by three windows that look out to the side and rear of the property. Adjoining the kitchen is a well positioned dining room with quarry tiled floor (a continuation from the kitchen), a glazed door leading out onto the formal gardens and a fireplace with inset multi-fuel wood-burner for those cooler Winter evenings. There is also a half glazed in-built storage cupboard to store and display a range of crockery and dining ware.

Beyond the kitchen and dining room is an inner hallway with an attractive chequer-board floor, stairs to the first floor, under stair storage cupboard and doors leading to a study, bathroom and sitting room. The study boasts stained glass interior windows, tiled flooring, exposed wall and ceiling timbers, radiator and three windows with rear aspect framing views of open pasture. There is also a large cupboard and shelving in the study. The ground floor bathroom has tiled flooring, window to the rear, panel bath, wash basin and a corner shower.

The sitting room oozes character and charm with a deep window seat framing a super view of the tiered front lawn that wouldn't look out of place in a country magazine. There is also a stone feature fireplace with log burner and a show of exposed timber work. Adjoining the sitting room is an oak framed garden room that currently houses a large dining table for entertaining family or friends. The tiled floor has electric under-floor heating alongside a vaulted ceiling, exposed green oak beams, windows and doors to either side of the room.

Back in the entrance hall, a wooden staircase leads to a generously sized landing with wooden flooring, exposed wall timbers and a window to the rear. There is a storage cupboard, curved feature wall, loft access and doors leading to three good sized double bedrooms and a shower room. All three bedrooms enjoy built in storage and have the use of a shower room with WC, sink and shower cubicle.

Land & Gardens

To the right of the drive on the approach to the house is a paddock circa 0.33 acres. To the left are the formal gardens consisting of water feature, flower beds and areas of lawn with stone retaining walls. There is also a productive orchard area with apple, plum, damsons and walnuts for picking alongside a kitchen garden. To the rear of the property is a lower paddock currently housing a poly-tunnel and bordered by a stream. There is a greenhouse next to the garage.

Outbuildings & Parking

- There are a number of useful outbuildings to include:
- * Workshop
 - * Three stables
 - * Useful utility room
 - * Hayloft (that could provide additional accommodation with the necessary permissions sought)
 - * Double Car Port with log store
 - * Impressive double garage with two door sets for vehicular access, concrete floor, power and lighting.
- The approach to the property is via a long driveway accessed by a five bar gate. There is a courtyard style paved parking area behind the house providing ample parking and turning space
