Introduction

This period first floor apartment is situated in the heart of Leominster town and boasts character features, high ceilings and ample living accommodation. The light and spacious first floor accommodation comprises: entrance hallway, two bedrooms, shower room, sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room and off road parking.

Property Description

Entry begins into an entrance hallway which immediately showcases the building's tall ceilings and cornice detailing. To the left is a double bedroom with ample space for a selection of bedroom furniture. It also has picture railing and cornice detailing that is echoed throughout the flat reflecting the elegance of a bygone era. Directly opposite and to the right of the entrance hall is a shower room. The shower room has a modern shower cubicle, hand basin, WC, bidet and sash window for added light and ventilation. Further along the hallway and to the front of the building boasting three sash windows is the sitting room. With fireplace, storage cupboard and a light and airy feel this room would be a delightful spot for reading a book or receiving guests. Immediately next door is a single bedroom with sash window front aspect. This room could lend itself to becoming a study if required. The kitchen next door also has front aspect with two sash windows and is a generous size allowing for the addition of a breakfast table. There is a range of wall and floor units with housing for an electric oven and fridge/freezer and two built in pantry cupboards either side of a fireplace.
