Introduction

Located in the old part of the market town of Knighton, which dates back to the 1200s, is this Grade II Listed semi-detached three bedroom cottage, with views over the town and onto Kinsley Wood beyond. The accommodation comprises: entrance porch, living room, kitchen/breakfast room, bathroom and three double bedrooms. There is also a cellar and an external outhouse across the courtyard.

Property description

The front door leads you to a useful entrance porch, perfect for kicking off those muddy boots and hanging coats before a further leads through to the living room. The living room has new carpets fitted and a bay window allowing light to stream into the room. A little step up leads to the kitchen/breakfast room with space for a small table and chairs. There are plenty of base and wall units with space for an oven, space and plumbing for a washing machine. An external door takes you to the courtyard area at the rear.

From the living room stairs rise to the first floor landing which has an exposed stone wall and feature original window. On this floor there is the main bedroom with a sash window to the front and the bathroom with a white suite and a shower over the bath. There is also an airing cupboard which houses the combi-boiler. From the first floor landing stairs rise to the second floor landing which has two further bedrooms, bedroom three has eave storage and on this floor is also exposed stonework and beams.

Gardens and parking

From the kitchen a door takes you into the shared courtyard at the rear with a useful outhouse perfect for storage.

Location

The property is located just off the town centre of Knighton (Tref y Clawdd) within the conservation area, which is located in Mid Wales, and is a market town within the historic county boundary of Radnorshire, lying on the river Teme, with a railway station on the Heart of Wales line. The Offas Dyke footpath is a 177 mile National Trail footpath that closely follows the England/Wales border. It opened in 1971 from Prestatyn to Chepstow with Knighton sitting at the half way point with a visitors centre. Knighton has a primary school, supermarket, leisure centre and many other smaller independent shops. The larger market town of Ludlow, 16 miles has a wider variety of facilities and hosts the famous Ludlow Food Festival. The larger Spa town of Llandrindod Wells, 18 miles offers a further wider range of facilities.

Services

All mains services are connected. The property has gas heating.

Anti-Money Laundering Regulations

In accordance with The Money Laundering Regulations 2007, Cobb Amos are required to carry out customer due diligence checks by identifying the customer and verifying the customer's identity on the basis of documents, data or information obtained from a reliable and independent source. At the point of your offer being verbally accepted, you agree to paying a non-refundable fee of £24 Inc. VAT per purchaser, in order for us to carry out our due diligence.

Mobile signal

Various factors can affect coverage, such as being close to large trees or buildings when outdoors, or the thickness of walls if you're inside a building. This means there may be differences between the coverage prediction and your experience.
