Introduction

Walton House, believed to date from the late 1800s, is an impressive link-detached Victorian residence showcasing a wealth of original character throughout. From its beautifully preserved doors and tiled flooring to ornate ceiling roses, sash windows and picture rails, the property retains an abundance of period detail rarely found in homes today. Sympathetically refurbished by the current owners, Walton House now blends its historic charm with thoughtful modern touches, offering a wonderful opportunity to own a distinguished period home in the heart of the border town of Knighton. The historic Offa's Dyke Path runs through the centre of the town, placing miles of scenic walking routes right on the doorstep.

The current owners have also carried out significant improvements, including a full electrical rewire and upgraded plumbing, ensuring the property's period charm is complemented by modern reliability.

The accommodation includes: a welcoming vestibule, spacious hallway, living room, dining room, well-appointed kitchen, cosy snug/study/bedroom five, four bedrooms, box room/dressing room, utility, rear porch and a useful cellar.

Property description

The double front doors open into a welcoming vestibule, where the original Victorian mosaic tiled flooring immediately sets the tone for the character found throughout the home. This beautiful flooring continues through to the hallway, which features the original staircase rising to the half landing and doors leading to the ground floor accommodation. To the right is the elegant living room, a bright and generous space with a side window, large bay window, ornate ceiling rose and a striking feature fireplace. Across the hall, the formal dining room mirrors the charm of the living room with its own large bay window, ceiling rose and a door connecting directly to the kitchen. The newly fitted kitchen is fitted with a range of green wall and base units, space for appliances, brick tiled feature wall and enjoys a rear-facing window, and in all new tiled flooring. Opposite the inner hall is the snug — a lovely versatile room with two windows currently being utilised as a bedroom but equally ideal as a cosy retreat or study.

A rear hallway leads to the porch and a practical rear porch with space for coats and shoes, there is also a ground floor shower room with a three piece white suite, with a cupboard housing the boiler. A further door provides access down to the cellar rooms which offers excellent storage but also presents exciting potential for conversion, subject to any necessary permission — perhaps a media room, home office or hobby space.

The staircase rises to the half landing, where a door opens into the bathroom with a newly fitted white suite with P Bath and shower over and stylish metro tiling on the walls.

On the first floor, doors lead to five rooms. The two double bedrooms at the front are particularly impressive: Bedroom

One features two windows and an original fireplace, while Bedroom Two has a front-facing window and a fireplace that could be reinstated. Bedroom Three overlooks the garden and side elevation and includes an original fireplace. Across the landing, Bedroom Four is another comfortable double room with garden views and built-in storage. The fifth room is a useful box room — ideal as a nursery, office, dressing room or potentially reconfigured to create an ensuite for one of the double bedrooms (subject to the necessary permissions).

Gardens and parking

To the front of the property there is an enclosed area with a brick wall and railings which leads to the front door. There is a path that leads down the side of the property to the rear garden. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with mature shrubs and plants to the sides and a patio area to the rear, enclosed with timber fencing ensuring the garden is secure and private. There a range of fruit trees to include plum, pear and apple. There is also the original outhouses but these require some refurbishment works or to be taken down but could offer further accommodation to the house (STP). To the rear of the garden a gate leads to the parking area with space for two cars

Garage and car port

A detached single garage with up and over door and an adjoining car port, located at the end of the garden accessed via a pedestrian gate.
