Introduction

A detached three bedroom home with detached studio/office in an elevated position located on a select cul de sac with views over the surrounding hills in a small rural village near the popular border town of Presteigne. This property has been refurbished and reconfigured by the current owners to offer well-appointed and modern accommodation throughout, landscaped gardens and has had solar panels installed on the roof. This property is certainly a must view!

The accommodation comprises: hallway, living room, kitchen/dining room, garden room, main bedroom with ensuite, two further bedrooms, shower room and detached studio and utility.

Property description

The front door leads through into the hall with hard flooring, which runs throughout the property, and doors leading off to the various accommodation. The living room is located to the front of the property with a lovely bay window allowing wonderful views over the garden and hills beyond with a fantastic fireplace installed by the current owners with a multi-fuel stove. From the living room an opening leads through to the kitchen/dining room, this space has been reconfigured by the current owners by opening up two separate spaces and has created an open plan space. Fitted with an extensive range of wall and base units, integrated appliances to include dishwasher, fridge/freezer, oven and hob and leads through to the garden room which overlooks the rear garden and across the patio to the utility space.

There are three bedrooms, one is being used as a home office and overlooks the back garden along with bedroom two. The main bedroom is to the front so enjoys the views over the gardens and hills beyond and has a shower ensuite which has been refurbished by the current owners to offer a modern white suite. Off the hall is are useful storage cupboard, one housing the boiler and the other for storage. The shower room is across from bedroom three and has been refurbished to offer a modern suite with vanity sink, mosaic patterned flooring and a shower.

Detached studio

The current owners have created a studio/work space by converting the detached double garage with patio doors opening onto the front driveway. To the rear is a utility room, with sink and plumbing for a washing machine. The space could lend itself to further accommodation to the main house, subject to necessary permissions being obtained, and used as an Air Bnb.

Gardens and parking

The property is approached via a tarmac driveway and offers parking for a number of vehicles and has a path that lead around to the front door and rear of the property. To the front of the property there is a lawned area that is bordered by mature plants and shrubs and allows unobstructed views of the hills beyond. To the rear of the property the current owners have created a wonderful space with patio area off the back of the house, planted numerous plants and shrubs, erected a timber pergola with seating area and an amenity area in the top corner.

Location

Norton is a pretty village with a strong community feel, located two miles north is the sought after Market Town of Presteigne located in the Welsh Marches. This was the county town of Radnorshire and has become a local cultural centre, hosting two festivals. First, the oddly named Sheep Music Festival dedicated to contemporary music and the Presteigne Festival of Music and the Arts. The town is fortunate to have an award winning museum - The Judges Lodgings. Presteigne has a Primary and Secondary School, Leisure Centre and thriving community spirit with the popular market being held once a month. Further afield, the markets towns of Knighton and Ludlow offer a range of facilities, the latter being known for its restaurants and festivals. The nearest train station is in Knighton, a little under 7 miles away. The Cathedral City of Hereford, 20 miles offers greater amenities.
