Introduction

The Willows is a non-traditionally constructed bungalow set in a slightly elevated position just outside Knighton, with grounds extending to just over an acre. The sellers are motivated, and the accommodation currently comprises an entrance hall, kitchen, dining room, storage cupboard, bathroom, living room, office and four bedrooms. The property offers practical space throughout and presents clear scope for development or improvement, subject to the necessary consents.

Property description

Steps lead up to the front door and into the hallway. The property benefits from double-glazed windows throughout. From the hall, a door to the left opens into the kitchen, which then leads through to the dining room where there is a storage cupboard and sliding French doors giving access to the outside space. Off the hall is the bathroom, fitted with a three-piece white suite. To the right of the hall is a large, double-aspect living room with views over the Terme Valley and a central fireplace. From here, four doors lead to the bedrooms, which run along the back of the property. At the far end, a further door opens into an office with windows to the front and side, along with a door returning to the front of the property.

Gardens

The property is approached via a footpath that leads directly to the front of the bungalow. The grounds extend to approximately one acre, made up grass areas, orchard and woodland to the rear and sides. The setting offers privacy and a natural backdrop, with clear potential for buyers to create landscaped areas, seating spaces or further defined garden zones to make full use of the plot. The current owners park in the layby opposite the bungalow.

Agents notes - Construction

Prospective purchasers are advised the property is of non-standard construction and therefore advised if they need to purchase with a mortgage they should seek advice from a financial advisor prior to viewing to confirm eligibility.

Agents notes - Title

The property benefits from 3 titles:

WA639632 - house & garden

WA260766 - area containing the septic tank

WA663922 - Field to rear

There is a small area of land that has been missed off the field title and is subject to a possessory title. This area of land has been part of the property for over 35 years & registered as possessory title for over 13 years and can now be claimed as title absolute. Where title to an estate in land is a possessory one, you can apply to upgrade the title to an absolute freehold title once the possessory title has been registered for 12 years. For further information, please contact us.

Agents notes - Public footpath

The map shown on these details identifies that an unmade public footpath leads off Glyndwr Way & crosses the south western boundary of the field and follows a route around mostly the edge of the field exiting on to the B4355. The vendor has stated that due to the condition of the footpath it is rarely if ever used.

Location

The property is located on the fringes of Knighton (Tref y Clawdd) which is located in Mid Wales and is a market town within the historic county boundary of Radnorshire, lying on the river Teme, with a railway station on the Heart of Wales line. The Offas Dyke footpath is a 177 mile National Trail footpath that closely follows the England/Wales border. It opened in 1971 from Prestatyn to Chepstow with Knighton sitting at the half way point. At the Knighton visitors centre by the river, you can stand with one foot in each country. Knighton also has a primary school, supermarket, leisure centre, and many other smaller independent shops. The larger market town of Ludlow, 16 miles away, has a wider variety of facilities and hosts the famous Ludlow Food Festival. The larger spa town of Llandrindod Wells, 18 miles away, offers a further wider range of facilities.

Services

The property has oil fired heating, mains water, drainage and electricity.
