Introduction

Maes Glas is a detached home that has a large open plan kitchen/dining room with the accommodation flowing from this hub of the home to create a fantastic space on the ground floor. There are two reception rooms off the kitchen/dining room and a fourth bedroom that could be used as a home office, shower room, separate WC with laundry and airing cupboard and then three further bedrooms on the first floor. Located on the fringes of the village of Gladestry its enjoys the village setting whilst having woodland farmland on your doorstep. The gardens have been landscaped to offer decked areas, pergola, ornamental pond, raised beds and a secluded hot tub in the rear garden, perfect for enjoying your picturesque and peaceful surroundings. The current owners installed a new roof in May 2025 with the addition of solar panels and an air source heat pump. The accommodation comprises: porch, kitchen/dining room, living room, bedroom four/office, conservatory, shower room, WC/Utility and three bedrooms.

This property will be legally prepared enabling any interested buyer to secure the property immediately once their bid/offer has been accepted. Ultimately a transparent process which provides speed, security and certainty for all parties.

Property description

The front door leads into the porch which is a very handy space that then leads through to the impressive kitchen/dining room which is one open space which is the heart of the home with the rest of the rooms leading from this focal point. The space is fitted with a wealth of base and wall units, shelving, worktop space, central island, breakfast bar in front of a picture window, the perfect spot for a morning coffee overlooking the garden and field beyond. There is an integrated oven, hob and dishwasher with space for an American style fridge/freezer, spotlights in the ceiling and laminate flooring. Off the kitchen is the living room with acoustic boarding as focal point with large picture window overlooking the garden when closed or an extension of the kitchen/dining room when open. It has laminate flooring, a fireplace and patio doors leading to the conservatory which overlooks the garden. Off the kitchen/dining room is the fourth bedroom, a home office or play room as its currently set up, there is also a handy WC with utility and airing cupboard.

A door leads through to the inner hallway with stairs rising to the first floor, a large Velux window floods the space with light leading to the modern shower room. The shower room now has a large glass shower, grey tiled walls with teal tiled border pulling through from the kitchen to offer cohesion throughout the home. There is a vanity sink with drawers and glass bowl sink, WC, towel radiator and tiled flooring.

On the first floor there are three bedrooms, two being doubles and the landing which has storage running the length and mirrors to bounce light around the space. There is also eves storage space running the length of both sides of the roof.

Gardens and parking

The property is approached via the driveway which leads up the front of the house with parking for two to three cars. There is a detached garage at the bottom of the drive and an attached garage to the side of the house, both with up and over doors. The detached garage with some improvement works would make an ideal workshop space or you could explore the attached garage as further accommodation (STPP). To the front of the house is an enclosed garden with lawned area, raised beds and an ornamental pond. To the rear of the house is a great space for relaxing or entertaining comprising of a decked areas with a timber pergola over the top and a decked area with seating space on the bank overlooking the brook that runs along the rear of the property (half of which belongs to Maes Glas). Off the deck area there is also an enclosed area with artificial turf. A perfect space for children to play.

Location

Gladestry is a small village in Powys - Mid Wales which is close to the border of England, with wonderful views over Hergest Ridge and lies south of the Radnor Forest. The infamous Offas Dyke footpath passes through the village, and the village has a strong agricultural community. The village has a popular primary school, pub which also houses a village shop, village hall, church and the mobile post office visits the village twice a week. There are further amenities in the market town of Kington, 5 miles. Kington town is well catered for offering a number of individual shops, supermarkets, a doctors surgery, a leisure centre plus nursery, primary and secondary schooling. Hay on Wye which hosts the famous Hay festival is just 8 miles.

Services

The property has mains water, private drainage to a septic tank, solar panels for electricity and air source heat pump for heating.
