Introduction

Larkstead is a wonderful detached property that has an upside down plan with the reception spaces on the first floor to take advantage of the location, views and access into the garden. The property has three double bedrooms, two bathrooms, two reception spaces, open plan kitchen/dining room and a balcony over looking the town and a great space for entertaining. The property has a driveway for parking a number of cars, large garage and gardens to the rear and side offering spaces to sit and relax, plant flower and grow some veg.

The accommodation comprises: entrance hall, two bedrooms, bathroom, living room, office, kitchen/dining room and a main bedrooms, dressing area and bathroom ensuite.

Property description

An open porch leads to the front door which opens into the entrance hall with solid wooden door leading off to two double bedrooms with windows to the front and a bathroom with a white suite and shower over the bath. Stairs then lead up the first floor and the main accommodation with the hall leading to the kitchen/dining room one end and the living room and main bedrooms the other. The kitchen/dining room is a lovely open space with a triple aspect and patio doors leading out to the garden. The dining area has space for a table and chairs and a sofa to create a real family space with a wooden floor and leads to a kitchen area with a tiled floor, central island, a range of wall and base units, integrated oven and hob, oil fired Aga and space for fridge/freezer. Off the top of the stairs is glazed door leading to into a very handy office or snug or playroom and offers buyers a flexible space. it has a triple aspect and also two doors leading out to the garden.

The living room is a lovely room with patio doors to the rear leading to a patio and bi-folding doors to the front leading to a balcony with deck and glass balustrade. There is a brick fireplace with inset stove and a is a lovely focal point in the room.

Off the living room is the main bedroom with a dressing area, wardrobes, ensuite bathroom with a five piece suite with neutral tiling to the walls and floors and vanity sink with storage. The bedroom to the front has two double wardrobes, window to the front and patio doors to the side leading out onto the balcony.

Gardens, garage and parking

The property has a large tarmac driveway with parking for a number of cars, a garage with double doors to the front, a pedestrian door to the side and light and power. The boiler is also in the garage. A path leads from the right up through a flower bed area and leads back towards to the house where there is a veg patch area and green house. A patio area can be found off the dining room and then leads around the back of the office to a second patio area off the living room and then an amenity area with the oil tank and steps leads back down to the driveway. The separate areas of the garden offer privacy and low maintenance spaces so they are ready to enjoy.

Location

The property is located just off the town centre of Knighton (Tref y Clawdd) which is located in Mid Wales, and is a market town within the historic county boundary of Radnorshire, lying on the river Teme, with a railway station on the Heart of Wales line. The Offas Dyke footpath is a 177 mile National Trail footpath that closely follows the England/Wales border. It opened in 1971 from Prestatyn to Chepstow with Knighton sitting at the half way point with a visitors centre. Knighton has a primary school, supermarket, leisure centre and many other smaller independent shops. The larger market town of Ludlow, 16 miles has a wider variety of facilities and hosts the famous Ludlow Food Festival. The larger Spa town of Llandrindod Wells, 18 miles offers a further wider range of facilities.
