Introduction

7 Church Street is a charming end of terrace period cottage that is Grade II Listed and has a wealth of period features to include fireplaces, exposed beams and timber frame and wonderful focal points of lath and plaster on show. The property requires modernisation and could be a lovely home just off the centre of the popular town of Clun. The property also has a detached barn within the garden and offers buyers an option to create extra accommodation space (STP) or workshop space.

The accommodation comprises: living room, dining room, kitchen two bedrooms, bathroom and a utility room that could be a third bedroom, ensuite or dressing room.

Property description

The property can be accessed from the main street through a front door leading into the living room or through a door from the side laneway into the dining room. The living room to the front has a window overlooking the street, a fireplace in the corner and exposed beams. A door leads through to a small lobby with the stairs rising to the first floor and leads into the dining room with a large Inglenook fireplace with original fireplace behind the multi fuel stove currently providing a source of heating. This room also has exposed beams, framework and the lath and plaster as a feature within the walls. Off the dining room is the kitchen which is fitted with a range of wall and base units and space for appliances.

On the first floor you find two bedrooms both being doubles, one to the front overlooking the street and hills beyond and one to the rear which overlooks the quite side laneway. There is a bathroom which is fitted with a three piece white suite with a shower over and an airing cupboard housing the water cylinder. On this floor is also a utility room that has been used as a store/bedroom/kitchenette in the past and could be utilised as an ensuite for a bedroom, a dressing room or back into a third bedroom.

Gardens and parking

The property has a path leading from the house around the side of the barn and to the back where you find a level space that could be developed into a lovely landscaped garden. There is a covered area off the barn perfect for storing logs etc. Parking is available on the street.

Detached barn

The property has a detached stone and timber barn included that offers buyers a great opportunity to create some workshop/studio space. Its currently split into two store rooms, former WC's, a workshop space and stairs rising to a first floor level.

Please be aware that one corner of the barn has a small area belonging to a neighbouring property for a refuse bin.

Location

Tranquil, pretty community overlooked by spectacular castle ruins. Most people think of Clun as a village, but it has the distinction of being granted a very early town charter in the 14th century. It was also mentioned in the Domesday Book and there is archaeological evidence of habitation back as far as 5000 years ago with Neolithic and Bronze Age tools on display in the town's museum. Overlooking the town is the ruined Borderland castle, perched high on two ice age mounds with the River Clun running past it, makes a scenic picnic spot. Clun is located in the Shropshire's Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and draws many visitors to the town to enjoy its hospitality, wonderful walking and scenery. The town has some local shops and amenities and a primary school but more extensive shopping is available in Knighton, Bishops Castle, Craven Arms and Ludlow and train stations on the Heart of Wales train line which links the west coast of Wales, mid Wales and English mainlines is located at Knighton, Bucknell, Hopton Heath and Craven Arms.
