Location

Leintwardine is a thriving village and is part of a Roman settlement the whole village being a conservation area, offering a good variety of amenities including a well-stocked village shop, petrol filling station, garage, doctors surgery with pharmacy, local family butchers, nursery and primary schooling, library and an active community centre. Leintwardine is also popular due to being located within the Wigmore High School catchment area, which is a highly sought after secondary school. It also boasts the Lion Hotel, an excellent restaurant and the Sun Inn which is a community pub holding various regular events. For those seeking to enjoy an outdoor lifestyle there are many beautiful countryside walks you can access from the village either alongside the river or over the hills with views toward Herefordshire, Shropshire and Mid Wales It should be noted that the Granary is, only 10 minutes from the heart of Ludlow's thriving town centre, where you will find a range of independent traders, shops and cafés with frequent open air markets, food festivals, events and the infamous castle Ludlow is regarded as one of the best foodie towns in the country and with some of the most beautiful buildings anywhere which showcases how building forms have developed from the medieval period through to the 18th and 19th Century.
