Introduction

A charming and deceptively spacious three-bedroom period cottage located on the edge of the village of Clun. Hope Cottage offers a delightful blend of character features and modern comfort, having been partially modernised in recent years. The cottage retains original features such as exposed beams, a traditional stone fireplace with a wood-burning stove, and quarry tile flooring, making it an ideal home for a variety of buyers including retirees and downsizers, second-home buyers, young professionals and couples, families and investors for a holiday let or rental property.

Property Description

As you approach Hope Cottage you are welcomed by a front porch, ideal for boots and shoes. From the open hall, immediately to the right is the first of two reception rooms, the lounge is a warm and inviting space with a feature fireplace, inset wood burner and lots of natural light from a large window overlooking the front aspect. Being full of character, this room also features exposed wall and ceiling timbers and parquet flooring. The second reception room offers a dining area in keeping with the property's charm, fitted with a wood burning stove and quarry tile flooring, the open-plan arrangement flows into the kitchen / breakfast room. Fitted with traditional units, with planned space for appliances, and views over the garden, the kitchen is a practical area with door to rear patio and garden. The adjacent cloakroom / utility has a W.C. and offers space and plumbing for washing machine.

Stairs ascend from the hall to the first floor, a spacious master bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes and views over the surrounding countryside. A second bedroom has been newly decorated, perfect as a guest room or home office, bedroom three has a feature fireplace and benefits from countryside views to front. All bedrooms share access to a newly fitted and stylishly finished bathroom, with a suite in white comprising bathtub with shower over, pedestal wash hand basin and W.C.

Outside

The property has a private rear garden with a patio area for al fresco dining abutting the house, mature flower beds, and a lawn bordered by hedges and fencing. To the front, block paving forms a path to the property with an area laid to lawn enclosed by stone walls. A further plot opposite the property extends to 0.08 acres including a storage shed, single garage and block paved parking area for multiple vehicles.

Location

Situated on The Green, just a short distance from local amenities, including the village shop, cafes, pubs, and the historic castle. Clun is part of the National Landscapes (formerly the Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty), offering endless opportunities for outdoor pursuits such as walking, cycling, and bird watching.

The nearby town of Craven Arms provides additional amenities, including supermarkets, restaurants, and a railway station with connections to larger towns and cities.
