Introduction

1 Mill Road sits in a quiet and friendly community in the village of Newcastle, with nearby amenities in Clun and Craven Arms. Surrounded by the rolling hills and lush countryside of the Shropshire Hills National Landscape (formerly Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty), it's a haven for walkers, cyclists, and nature lovers.

Property Description

This charming property is accessed via a front door with canopy over, the generous reception hallway has stairs to first floor and door into the welcoming lounge. Boasting a feature fireplace, the lounge has dual aspect windows providing ample natural light. The kitchen/diner offers space for table and chairs, featuring traditional cabinetry, integrated oven and ceramic hob, range stove and built-in cupboards and door to conservatory. With French doors and large windows to the rear garden, this versatile space also includes access to a cloakroom featuring W.C. and corner wash basin.

Upstairs are three generous bedrooms, each with neutral décor, and a family bathroom comprising bath, W.C. and pedestal wash basin.

Location

Situated on Mill Road in the tranquil village of Newcastle, this home is surrounded by open countryside, walking trails, and a warm local community. There is a local community public house, the town of Clun is just a short drive away offering a convenience store, independent shops, café's, public houses and essential services. Craven Arms is approximately 12 miles away, benefitting from a large supermarket, a mainline train station, and other essential amenities. The historic town of Ludlow is also within easy reach.

Outside & Grounds

The rear garden is a peaceful retreat with mature planting, a paved patio for outdoor dining, being enclosed, it is ideal for children or pets. A gravel driveway to the front provides off-road parking with an area laid to lawn, with herbaceous borders and wall to front and side.
