Introduction

The Old Oast House is a beautifully converted old hop kiln, offering well-proportioned and thoughtfully designed accommodation throughout. Blending character features with stylish modern finishes, the home includes a spacious open-plan living area, a contemporary kitchen / breakfast room dining space, and a separate utility room and cloak room.

Upstairs, there are four generously sized bedrooms, including a stunning principal suite with countryside views and a mezzanine en-suite shower room, while the high-spec family bathroom completes the layout. This unique property is Ideal for modern family living, the accommodation combines comfort, style, and practicality in a charming rural setting.

Property Description

The accommodation is arranged to maximise light and space, with a welcoming entrance and versatile spaces. A beautifully appointed contemporary kitchen, recently fitted as part of the renovation works, with a stylish range of shaker-style units in a soft grey finish complemented by sleek work surfaces. The kitchen is equipped with integrated appliances including AEG double oven, induction hob, integrated under-counter fridge and dishwasher, along with a classic ceramic farmhouse sink positioned beneath a window overlooking the garden. A built-in wine rack, soft-close cabinetry, and attractive wood-effect flooring complete the look, creating a bright, practical, and elegant heart of the home.

The adjacent utility area is styled in keeping with the kitchen and features built-in fridge/freezer and discreet under-cabinet lighting, providing both practical task illumination and an attractive ambient glow.

A stunning reception room is brimming with character, showcasing exposed timber beams and pillars that highlight the property's heritage. An attractive exposed brick feature wall forms the focal point, where a wood-burning stove is to be installed, creating a cosy and inviting atmosphere. French doors open directly onto the gardens, allowing natural light to flood the room and providing a seamless indoor-outdoor flow. Stairs rise to the first floor, enhancing the sense of space and charm in this beautifully crafted living area.

Arranged around a central open landing, the bedrooms are spacious, with the principal suite offering scenic views of the surrounding countryside. It also benefits from a convenient mezzanine en-suite shower room, featuring a vanity unit with an inset wash basin, a large corner shower enclosure, and a W.C. The bathrooms are finished to an excellent standard, with modern fixtures throughout. The family bathroom includes a sleek white suite with a bath, shower enclosure, vanity unit with inset wash basin, and W.C.

Outside & Grounds

This generous outdoor space offers a private, gravelled area, ideal for a range of uses. The landscaping is almost complete, with a freshly laid pathway leading from the property and a large, enclosed garden that provides both space and privacy.

The boundary is secured by a newly installed wooden fence, enhancing the sense of seclusion. To the side, a charming timber-framed double carport offers further storage and parking. The space is versatile, offering plenty of room for future enhancement or leisure activities, all with a beautiful backdrop of mature trees and open sky.

Location

The Old Oast House is situated in the peaceful village of Burford, just a short distance from the market town of Tenbury Wells. The town offers a range of local amenities, including schools, local independent shops, a supermarket, several public houses, cafes, bistro's and essential services.
