Introduction

Welcome to Heath House, A wonderful family home set in a picturesque setting in South Shropshire, surrounded by countryside views looking onto the Long Mynd

Property Description

The property is approached via a quiet country lane, opening onto a substantial private gravel driveway that provides ample parking and access to the main residence, outbuildings, and surrounding grounds. The land accompanying the property affords a high degree of privacy and separation from neighbouring homes, while enjoying uninterrupted, far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into an entrance hall featuring attractive quarry tiled flooring. To the left, a door opens into the charming sitting room, complete with characterful wood-panelled walling and an inset feature fireplace with open grate, creating a warm and inviting focal point.

To the right of the hallway, the kitchen/breakfast room benefits from a double aspect, allowing for an abundance of natural light, and enjoys a delightful outlook, particularly from the sink. The kitchen is comprehensively fitted with a range of integrated units and appliances, including an oven, induction hob, Belfast sink, and a traditional Stanley Range. A door leads through to a generous conservatory, offering a bright and versatile space with views over the garden.

Leading from the kitchen, a lobby with WC provides access to a spacious family room, featuring a wood-burning stove and a secondary kitchenette area. This versatile room benefits from external doors opening onto both the kitchen garden and the stable yard, outbuildings, and yard beyond. Also accessible from the yard is a practical shower room with WC.

Stairs rise to the first floor, where there are three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a family bathroom. All bedrooms benefit from built-in storage, with two further enhanced by fitted wardrobes.

The family bathroom is well-appointed, comprising a matching suite including a bath, WC, and wash hand basin, completing the accommodation.

Gardens and Parking

Externally, the property offers exceptional potential for both hobby and business use, thanks to its extensive range of outbuildings. A substantial barn, complete with a ramp leading to a secondary level, provides excellent storage capacity, while an adjoining lean-to benefits from power and lighting, further enhancing its versatility.

The long barn is currently arranged as multiple storage areas but offers significant scope for conversion into secondary accommodation, subject to the necessary planning permissions (STPP). Additionally, there is an adjoining room which could be adapted for further ancillary accommodation or utilised as a holiday let; it is presently operating as a successful tea room.

The grounds provide ample parking, well-maintained lawned garden areas, and are complemented by a delightful natural pool, creating an attractive and tranquil outdoor setting.
