The living room is a bright and welcoming reception space, centred around a fire surround housing a coal-effect gas fire set on a marble hearth. A double-glazed side window provides additional light, while glazed double doors lead into the conservatory, enhancing the room's sense of space and flow.

The conservatory enjoys attractive views over the private rear garden, with double-glazed windows set on low brick walls and double-glazed French doors opening directly outdoors. This room serves as an excellent additional sitting or dining space and benefits from a radiator for year-round use.

The breakfast kitchen is an excellent size and is fitted with a comprehensive range of base units, drawer tops, and matching wall cupboards, along with extensive work surfaces to all sides. A stainless steel double-drainer sink unit is positioned beneath the window, and there is space for a cooker, washing machine, and dryer. Double-glazed windows to the side and rear provide plenty of natural light, making this a practical and sociable everyday kitchen.

Running along one side of the bungalow is the side porch, a useful lean-to structure with doors at both the front and rear. This additional space is ideal for boots, coats, storage, or as a convenient access route to the gardens.

There are three bedrooms, including two comfortable double rooms. Bedroom One features fitted wardrobes, a double-glazed window to the side, and a radiator. Bedroom Two is also a well-proportioned double, with a double-glazed window overlooking the front, and storage cupboard. Bedroom Three is a versatile dual-aspect room with windows to both the front and side, making it suitable as a third bedroom, home office, or study.

The family bathroom is fitted with a four-piece white suite comprising a low-level WC, pedestal wash basin, corner bath, and separate shower enclosure with electric shower. Tiling surrounds the suite, and the room includes an airing cupboard, radiator, and two double-glazed windows to the side.

Externally, the property sits within generous, well-established grounds. The front of the property includes a driveway providing off-road parking and a pathway leading to the side entrance.

The rear garden is private and mature, with a patio adjacent to the bungalow, leading onto a shaped long lawn with well-stocked borders and established planting. Towards the bottom of the garden, a gated driveway provides additional off-road parking in front of the detached timber-framed garage, offering excellent storage or workshop potential.

Beyond the formal gardens lies the property's most exceptional feature — in excess of 8 acres of land (approximately 8.6 acres). This extensive land offers huge scope for a wide variety of uses, including hobby farming, grazing, wildlife enjoyment, or simply retaining space and privacy. Opportunities of this scale and setting are extremely rare, particularly so close to town.

A unique home combining spacious accommodation, generous gardens, and extensive land with open rural views, all within walking distance of amenities.
