BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Halls are delighted to be instructed to sell Lock Keepers Cottage by private treaty.

Lock Keepers Cottage dates back to the early 19th Century and was attributed to Thomas Telford. There was an act of parliament in 1793 to create a canal from Ellesmere Port in the north through Wrexham, Trevor, Chirk and Ellesmere then to Shrewsbury linking the River Mersey, Dee & Severn.

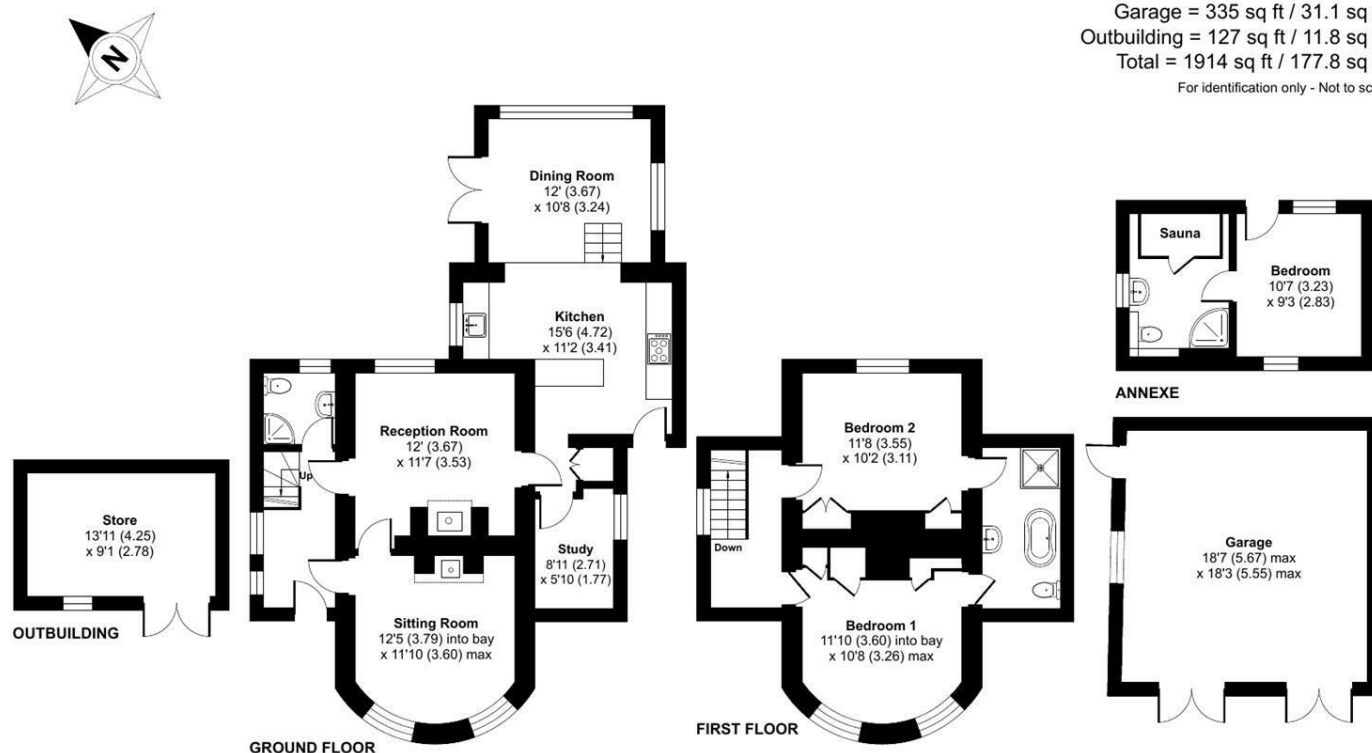

The canal to Grindley Brook at Whitchurch was a number of branch lines and was mainly used for slate, coal, limestone and fertiliser.

The property which is Grade II Listed, offers spacious accommodation over two floors and has a wonderful outlook over the canal and countryside to the rear. The accommodation briefly comprises a semi-circular canopied front entrance porch with door into the entrance hall which has windows to the side and exposed timbers. It has a door leading to a ground floor shower room with W.C. There is a living room to the front with feature curved wall, fireplace with log burner, wooden floor and exposed timbers. There is also a sitting room with feature fireplace and log burner. There is a wooden floor and window which has a view over the rear patio, gardens and countryside. The open plan split level kitchen is a great part of the home, and the Breakfast Kitchen area has a range style cooker, breakfast bar, base and wall units, granite work tops, Belfast style sink and integrated appliances. There are steps down from the kitchen to the dining area with exposed brick walls, windows with views over the gardens and countryside.
