DESCRIPTION

The Cottage occupies a serene and peaceful position against a backdrop of rolling fields and open countryside close to the popular village of Bronington, which lies on the England/Wales border and usefully contains the Bronington Voluntary Aided Primary School. Despite its rural location, the property retains a convenient proximity to the thriving market town of Whitchurch, which sits around three miles to the east and offers a range of amenities, including Schools, Supermarkets, Public Houses, Restaurants, and a range of independent. The county centres of Wrexham and Shrewsbury lie to the north and south respectively and prove a more comprehensive offering of facilities.

The Cottage is a period country home which has, over the years, been extended and improved to now provide around 2,000 sq ft of flexibly arranged living accommodation complete with a number of character features. The ground floor comprises a selection of versatile reception rooms ideally suited to a variety of usages, these accompanied by three first floor bedrooms, with the master benefitting from an en-suite.

The property is situated within generous gardens which extend, in all, to around 0.51 acres and enjoy excellent views across the peaceful countryside which surrounds the property. The property is approached onto a gravelled driveway with space for a number of vehicles, this bordered by a predominately timber outbuilding. To the east of the property is an orchard with, to the west, areas of lawn.
