Description

Halls Holdings Limited are favoured with the instructions from Connexus to offer this property for sale by Public Auction.

This semi-detached two-bedroom bungalow is situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac and offers an excellent opportunity for refurbishment. The accommodation currently comprises an entrance leading to the former kitchen, sitting room, former bathroom, airing cupboard and two well-proportioned bedrooms. Externally, the property benefits from a small storage cupboard to the front, a generous driveway with scope to extend and a manageable garden located to the side and rear. The property has been stripped back internally and is now presented as an empty shell, providing an ideal blank canvas for renovation. Constructed of traditional brick beneath a tiled roof, the property offers a solid structure with significant potential for improvement and modernisation.

Situation

The property is situated on White Lodge Park, at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, within the village of Shawbury. The village offers a range of local amenities including shops, schools and public houses. The property also benefits from convenient road links to nearby towns including Shrewsbury, Telford and Market Drayton, providing access to a wider range of services, amenities and transport connections.
