The contemporary frontage gives little indication of the impressive accommodation beyond. Opening into a spacious central reception hall with polished oak flooring, the property immediately conveys the quality, care and attention invested in this exceptional family home. Further enhancing its appeal, replacement double glazing has recently been installed throughout, ensuring the house is presented in pristine condition

ACCOMMODATION

The light and generously proportioned kitchen could easily form the heart of the home, with direct access to the garden as well as through the adjoining utility room. Large enough to accommodate a dining table or central island, it is a superb family living space where no expense has been spared. Features include attractive granite work surfaces, an easy-maintenance African slate floor, a Corian sink with traditional mixer tap, and a gas-fired Aga. Central heating is provided by a Worcester gas combination boiler

The welcoming lounge provides a cosy retreat, featuring a gas-fire that creates a warm and inviting atmosphere during the winter months. Patio doors open directly onto the rear patio, seamlessly connecting the indoor and outdoor spaces and making it ideal for enjoying warm summer evenings. In addition, there is a comfortable and well-proportioned study, perfectly suited for home working or use as a quiet reading room

Quality Sanderson oak veneer doors are fitted throughout the property, while the first-floor bedrooms benefit from built-in oak wardrobes. The principal bedroom enjoys a walk-in dressing area leading through to a luxurious marble-finished en suite bathroom

OUTSIDE

A particular feature of the property is the generous extent of parking, with a large driveway and turning area providing ample space for numerous vehicles, caravans or motorhomes

Complementing this is a substantial detached double garage with useful loft storage above. Of special note, the garage benefits from windows on all elevations, creating a bright and versatile space ideally suited as a workshop, hobby room or home-based business facility. The building may also offer potential for conversion to additional living accommodation, subject to the necessary planning permissions and building regulation approvals

To the rear, the gardens enjoy a high degree of privacy, being discreetly positioned behind the house and screened from neighbouring properties by mature hedging. A paved patio provides an excellent setting for outdoor entertaining, family gatherings and al fresco dining, whilst the attractively landscaped raised garden has been designed with ease of maintenance in mind.
