THE PROPERTY

Vendor Comments:

We bought the property as our plans were to spend more time in the UK but as our plans have changed it sadly makes no sense for us to keep it. The standout feature for us was always the view as many flats in Bath are restricted by other buildings, you can even see it when your sat in bed in the morning having a cup of tea! We loved the period features of the apartment as it feels in keeping with the building itself but also in an up to date modern design. The size of the rooms were an appeal to us along with plenty of storage. The location of the building is also something we loved as yours just minutes away from shops, pubs and restaurants but also just far enough away from the busy city centre.
