

42 Glossop Road, South Croydon, CR2 0PU
 £350,000

2

1

2

C

- Character spilt level maisonette
- Two double bedrooms
- Refitted kitchen
- Refitted shower room
- Just under 1,000 sq ft
- Within 5 minutes of two stations
- Share of freehold
- Long lease

Paul Meakin are delighted to market this stunning two double bedroom split level maisonette with an abundance of charm and character. Internally just shy of 1,000 sq ft the spacious accommodation is bright and flexible which will appeal to many buyers. The dual aspect living, dining space is modern and stylish with a couple of steps leading to the fully fitted kitchen where the chef of the house can take centre stage with an open plan archway, perfect for when you are entertaining friends and family. The current owners use the second bedroom as their lounge with high ceiling, decorative coving, it is a wonderful space to enjoy, the master bedroom is large with natural light flooding through the Velux windows to the front and the window to the back overlooking the rear garden. This style of property rarely becomes available, you are advised to view without delay to appreciate location, presentation and size.