

88 St Peters Street, South Croydon, CR2 7DF

Guide Price £385,000

2

1

0

D

- Two Bedrooms
- Victorian End Of Terrace
- Convenient Location
- Well Presented Throughout
- Low Maintenance Garden
- Modern Refitted Bathroom
- No Chain
- Another Property Entrusted To Paul Meakin

Paul Meakin are delighted to bring to market this two bedroom end of terrace Victorian house located in one of South Croydon's sought after roads. The property is presented to a high standard offering flexible accommodation and is being sold with no chain. The property briefly comprises of two reception rooms, refitted kitchen, two good size double bedrooms and modern refitted bathroom. The garden is low maintenance with a decking area adjacent to the rear of the property and additional patio areas. There is also a shed at the back of the garden. St. Peters Street is a convenient location which resides close to South Croydon Train Station and local amenities and is perfect for the professional commuter.