The Property

This impressive period home is set along a private lane in the sought-after hamlet of Perrancoombe, offering a rare blend of space, privacy and coastal countryside living.

The property is approached via a double-gated entrance, with a sweeping driveway that leads around the house to the carport, boat house and rear of the property, providing ample off-road parking. Surrounding the home are established, mature gardens laid predominantly to lawn, an allotment area, all framed by mature trees that enhance the secluded, rural setting.

Internally, the accommodation is well-proportioned and ideal for family living. The heart of the home is a generous L-shaped living room, incorporating sitting, family and dining areas, with a sunroom leading directly off the living space and enjoying views over the gardens. The kitchen/breakfast room offers a practical and social space for everyday living.

To the first floor are three well-sized double bedrooms, all served by a family bathroom, while a ground-floor shower room and W.C. provides added convenience.

Despite its peaceful and private position, the property remains within easy walking distance of the centre of Perranporth and its renowned sandy beach, making this an exceptional opportunity to enjoy rural seclusion without sacrificing coastal accessibility.

The Grounds

Once you access the grounds, you will find the sweeping driveway that leads around the home to the carport, 'Boat House', home office/annexe and rear of the property, providing ample parking.

To the front and side of the property are established, mature gardens laid predominantly to lawn, incorporating a pond (not currently filled), an allotment area, and a variety of shrub and flower beds, interspersed with mature trees that enhance the natural setting.

The gardens offer an exceptional level of privacy and a true sense of rural seclusion.
