The Property

A well-presented family home in a sought-after estate, offering a sunny rear, terraced garden, parking for two cars and a versatile insulated garage with additional rear store.

Full accommodation comprises a spacious lounge with feature bay window, leading to the modern kitchen-diner with grey units, granite-effect worktops and a breakfast bar for 3-4 people. A door opens to an insulated garage room that is perfect for a gym, home office or dining room. From here there is a rear porch that is large enough for a utility room.

Upstairs are three bedrooms, two generous double bedrooms, a good-sized single room and a modernised family shower room with quadrant cubicle, WC and vanity unit.

Pydar Close sits just a 10-minute walk from Porth Beach and Chester Road's amenities, including cafés, banks, a post office and local shops. Tretherras Secondary School, Newquay Orchard and Newquay Sports Centre are nearby, with Newquay town also within easy reach.

Gardens

The rear gardens are terraced style gardens and laid out over three levels. There are a selection of established plants making the gardens very private. The middle section has a purpose made hot tub area as well as a secluded seating area and the upper section offers an additional seating area that is considered to be low maintenance with patio slabs and slate chippings,

Parking

The driveway to the front offers private parking. If additional parking was required, there would be the option of removing the front gardens where you would have room for an extra vehicle.
