WHAT OUR VENDOR SAYS

LOCATION

Bingley is a charming market town nestled in the Aire Valley of West Yorkshire, with roots tracing back to Saxon times. Once an important mill town during the Industrial Revolution, its heritage still shines through the beautiful stone architecture and along the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, where the famous Five Rise Locks stand as one of Britain's most impressive canal engineering feats. Today, Bingley offers a delightful blend of history, community spirit, and modern convenience. The town centre is alive with independent shops such as Luscombe's Gifts and Home Décor, Hedgehog Organics, and

The Rustic Garden florist, alongside welcoming cafés like Brick Bank Café and 96 Main Streets. Locals and visitors alike enjoy a vibrant food scene, from coffee at Il Caffè Ristretto by the railway station to meals at The Potting Shed, Shama, and The Brown Cow, as well as the convivial atmosphere of The Myrtle Grove pub and Martinez Wine Bar. Weekly markets bring fresh produce, flowers, and artisan goods to the town square, while everyday essentials are met by supermarkets including Aldi and Co-op. Families are well served by excellent schools such as Eldwick Primary, St Joseph's Catholic Primary, Bingley Grammar, and Beckfoot School. For those who love the outdoors, there are scenic walks along the canal, through the expansive St Ives Estate, and across the moorland trails surrounding the town. Bingley also benefits from superb transport connections: the centrally located Bingley Railway Station on Wellington Street provides regular services to Leeds, Bradford, and Skipton, with a second stop at nearby Crossflatts for added convenience. The A650 offers direct road links to Bradford and Keighley, and reliable local bus routes make travel easy. With its rich history, thriving local businesses, strong schools, and access to nature, Bingley combines traditional Yorkshire charm with everything needed for modern living.
