A sumptuously appointed gem, this unusually spacious two bedroom Abrahams apartment features a dedicated front door, rear garden and a wealth of original fixtures and finishes throughout. Just off Francis Road, you also have Leytonstone tube within easy reach.

Artfully restored original timber floorboards flow underfoot throughout, while pristine white paintwork and the high ceilings of the period make the most of your bright, airy spaces. To the rear, you have a seclude, gravelled seating area and lush lawn.

The artisanal coffee specialists of Francis Road are just five minutes away at the end of your street. You're sure to find a new favourite spot. Leyton Midland Road overground is just as close a check under the arches for some more great eating and drinking spots.

YOUR NEW HOME

Take a moment to appreciate the charming vintage stained glass set into your dedicated front door before stepping inside. Your front lounge is immediately on the right, 150 square feet with that bright bay window and a pristine black vintage hearth, mantel and tilework sat in the chimney breast.

Three cast iron radiators sit in the bay and original timber floorboards run underfoot, as throughout.
